

Conference

Prospectives of the world today

14 November 2025

Palace of Parliament, Constantin Stere Hall, Bucharest

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Center for Conflict Prevention and Early Warning and the Hanns Seidel Foundation Romania have the pleasure to invite you to the international conference “Prospectives of the World Today”, which will take place on 14 November 2025, between 9 AM - 2 PM at the Palace of Parliament, Constantin Stere Hall, Bucharest.

The conference will bring together international experts, policymakers, and security analysts to discuss the ongoing global turbulences and regional transformations shaped by geopolitical shifts and the Russian war of aggression against Ukraine.

Discussions will focus on global strategic reassessments, the evolution of the Indo-Pacific region, European security responsibilities, and the implications of Russia’s actions for the Wider Black Sea Region.

The event will also mark the launch of the volume “Prospective Studies of the World in Turbulence”, based on a comprehensive research project conducted by the Center for Conflict Prevention and Early Warning.

We kindly ask you to register by 08.11.2025 using the following link:
